

S. J. ROW. BDITOR AND PROPRIETOR CLEARFIELD, PA., NOV. 11, 1868.

The Popular Verdict.

The Tammany platform was devised to catch votes in the West, where, it was said, William A. Wallace in this State, S. J. Til- to the residence of Gen. Grant, in front of the people were tainted with the greenback and repudiation heresy. Mr. Peudleton John P. Stockton in New Jersey, and Thos. sent up, after which three rousing cheers presented a patent for certain planks whereon he claimed that everybody in the West was anxious to stand, and with which he was entirely certain the whole country would port, riding proudly at her anchors, with no titude as follows: be swept. This was a libel on the West, as injuries save her honorable scars, and with the majorities show. The Pendleton planks | the dear old bunting floating gaily from her were rotten from the first. His greenback theory had a damaging effect on the party. In supposing that the body of voters were as demoralized as themselves on the question of the finances, the Democratic leaders committed a fatal mistake. They probably see it now. On the financial question the popular verdict is emphatic. It is against everything that savors of dishonesty, and in favor of paying everything squarely. without equivocation-and it is against the delusive idea of expanding the volume of the currency by the free use of the paper mill and the printing press. It is to be hoped that democratic leaders and others who lent an ear to these heresies will profit by the popular determination.

"You Have Fought a Good Fight." This was the congratulatory exclamation of Mr. Wallace, to his followers, after the October election. And we now say to the Republicans, "You have fought a good fight," you have defeated the enemies of the Union-traitors, rebels, copperheads, and all-and once more your proud and starry flag (the harbinger of peace and prosperity to our people, and the emblem of freedom to the oppressed of every clime) floats in triumph over the whole land, We congratulate our political friends everywhere over their grand, glorious, and decisive victory over the advocates of rebellion, oppression and fraud; and long may our banner continue to wave And the home of the brave.

Hon. Galusha A. Grow. The laborious, unwearied and conscientious exertions of Mr. Grow, as Chairman of the Republican State Committee, during the most important and most exciting political contest ever witnessed in Pennsylvania, entitle him to the cordial thanks of every member of our party. But, while accord ing all praise to Mr. Grow, the thanks of the people are also due to the various local organizations, and to individuals in each of the counties, for their hearty and efficient co-operation in bringing about our recent political triumphs; but as the appointed executive head of the party great responsibilities were necessarily incumbent upon him and he met and discharged them in a man ner deserving the highest commendation.

Well, from the result on the 3d of No vember, in this State, we infer the "coloni zed voters" did "return home," and consequently the Republicans carried Pennsylvania by 30,000 majority instead of by less than 10,000, as in October; and the city of Philadelphia by a majority of 5,460, while it gave a majority of 165 against them on the State ticket in October. George, we thank you for your implied acknowledgment that you attempted to carry the State by "colonized voters" in Cctoher; and the re sult in November plainly shows that the facts were not misstated by you, though, perhaps, inadvertantly.

Where's that 1,500 Majority? "Democrats of Clearfield: you done nobly, but you can go 350 better on the 1st Tuesday of No-vember!"—Republican, Oct. 22d.

Missed fire again! That 1,500 majority looms up before the muddled Democrotic vision, as regularly before each election, as does the "Jack with a lantern" from marshy grounds before the belated traveler, but they who seek to obtain it are never able to grasp the object they have in view. Poor deladed dupes! How long will you continue to tollow the ignis fatui (the leaders) that are ever deceiving you?

THE U. S. SENATORSHIP. -The Philadelphia Bulletin advocates the claim, of Galusha A. Grow for the seat in the United States Senate now held by Mr. Buckalew, whose term will expire on the 4th of next March. The friends of John Scott, of Huntingdon, it is understood, are proposing It is likely we shall pay our honest debts to bring him forward as a candidate.

Supercepen.-The country will be gratified to learn that General Reynolds, the Military Commander whose inefficiency is responsible in some degree for the reign of terror which has prevailed in Texas, has been superced by General Canby, who now goes to that district with full discretionary powers, under the reconstruction acts. Tuesday's work already bears fruit.

A GLORIOUS TRIUMPH. - Last year Phildelphia gave Sharswood a majority of 2,485 and Ludlow 5,560 majority; now Grant's majority is 5, 812-showing a Republican gain of 8,297 over the former, and 11, 372 over the latter. Surely, George, those 'colonized voters MUST have returned home' after the October election, as is evident from the result in Philadelphia.

A FALLING OFF. - There was a falling off in the vote of the City of Philadelphia as ompared with the vote of October. The Democrats by this reduction lost 5,635 while the Republican vote was increased 352. This plainly indicates which party resorted to frauds, by colonizing voters and issuing forged naturalization papers, to carry the election in October.

Brick on a Rampage.

Brick Pomeroy evidently regards himself the leader of the Democratic party now, and he is not far wrong. Having struck an attitude, he sbouts as follows:

"No, never! By the heavens above us, and the blood-soaked, sacred soil beneath our feet, this shall never be! We are still men! We come of a stock which spurns the chain and defies the tyrant! Then stand to your arms, white men of America! Though the victory is not won, the cause is not lost! You are still as great, asstrong as ever! You have still a country, homes, children! Liberty in chains still beckens you to her rescue! God of our fathers! can we hold back from such solicitation? Can we give over struggle while freedom is denied us? Shall one-halt the Union be surrendered to African barbarism, and the whole to the tyrant's sway? Will we become the willing slave of money kings, and learn to speak

" In a bondsman's key With bated breath and whispering hum-

Had Brick let himself out after this fash on sooner, there is no knowing what would have happened. By the way, we congratulate the decent men of the Democratic party on having such leaders.

More Frauds Exposed, -Lewis Cudderbach, Clerk of the Court of Orange county, New York, assisted by his deputies, and a couple of Democratic lawyers, have been accused of perpetrating an immense practical joke, which took a political shape. The charges against these gentlemen allege. among other things that they held court in the absence of the judges, the fun-loving clerk presiding, and proceeded to naturalize applicants at a swifter rate than the courts in New York City. It was a race against time, in which Cuddertach won by a thousand or so. The ugliest part of this practical joke is the fact that the jokers charged a dollar apiece for the false certificates issued. The parties have all been arrested and will doubtless pay the penalty imposed upon great practical jokers.

"THEY KEEP A COMIN'!"-During the late rebellion, and when Gen. Sherman was on his grand march to the sec, an old negro said, "I reckon dem boys'll win. Dev are Democrats always whipped our massas say, but dev Three States unrepresented keep a comin' and a comin'." So it is with the boasted Democratic gains. They gained every local and State election, but some how or other Grant kept "a comin' and a comin' " until now we hear of no more Demoeratic gains, and of but few Democrats.

SURRATT CLEARED. - The Surratt case i finally disposed of, the Supreme Court of the District declining to entertain any appeal against the previous decision of the Criminal Court dismissing the prosecution under the statute of limitation. Furratt's name will therefore disappear from the columns of the press, unless he should volunteer to make good the rebel threat, which pledged the "dagger of Brutus" to attain what Ku Klux terrorism could not accom-

$30,000 in Switzerland, and her expenses to and fro were heavy. It has been decided in Kentucky that selling a horse to be paid for on the election of certain candidates is a bet, and that the debt so incurred cannot be collected The latest story about the Pacific Railway is that they find "combustible sandstone" along the line. It burns easily, and is thought to contain petroleum. Spain will have to import $50,000,000 worth of breadstuffs before the next harvest. She may with all this get a good deal of old rye, but she has been exporting Bourbon. Paint township, Somerset county, has been awarded the prize banner offered by Hon. John Cessna, for the largest increased vote in October over that cast the same month last year.

Judge Reed, of the Supreme Court, last week delivered an opinion, fortified by law quotations, that all the naturalization papers issued from that court since September 1st, were fraudulent.

Mr. Seymour feels disappointed. He is forsaken by his "friends." In the "muchness!' of his grief he resorteth to his "melon patch," and indulgeth in most meloncholy reflections. "How are the mighty fallen."

Somebody wants to know if every Souththey were enabled to carry the State consist- ern man has to marry a negro, as Democratic orators said they would if Grant should be elected. We hope Grant will be lenient with them and let them marry negresses "O, tempora! O, mores!" or, in other words, how sick the Democracy are. They here in Cambria county we always assess the are nigh unto death; and we feel it our dupaupers and have them vote the Democrat- ty to tell them that there is "no balm in ic ticket!" Which is a fact. - Alleghanian. Gilead" applicable to their case. Repent ye and believe. A young couple in New Albany made a pleasing bet. In case of Grant's election he agreed to marry the maid; and in case of Seymour's success she agreed to marry him -we don't mean Seymour, who is no supposed to be in a connubial mood. Let us have peace.

Mr. Wallace, Chairman of the Cop State Committee, it is said, is about to publish a new arithmetic, designed for the use of exclusive copperhead schools. It will have but one rule-loss and gain-by which the learned scholar can prove that by losing five dollars a day he can grow rich in a short time.

The New York Tribune says: Two more unfortunates, Weary of breath, Rashly importunate, Gone to their death!

Take them up tenderly, Lift them with care, Handle them gingerly, Poor Seymour and Blair!

How The President Is Elected. The electors chosen by the people of the several States are required, by the Act of 1792, to assemble at the capitals of their respective States on the first Wednesday in December, being the 2nd day of that month this year, and there to vote by ballot for President and Vice President, making lists of the ballots cast for each. These are to be transmitted, before the first Wednesday in January, to the President of the Senate at Washington. On the second Wednesday in February, that officer will open all these certificates, in the presence of the two Honses of Congress, and the votes are then counted, usually by tellers designated by each House. The persons having, respectively, the greatest number of votes, for President and Vice Presi lent, provided such numbers be majorities of the whole number of elect ors appointed, "shall be," says the Constitution, "President and Vice President." There are other provisions in that instrument, applicable to cases when no person is found to have a majority of the whole number of electoral votes, but we need not quote them here, the votes to be given for Grant and Colfax being largely in excess of the majority constitutionally required.

The twenty-six electoral votes of Pennsyl vania, being one for each representative of Andrew Johnson is spoken of as the next | the State in the two Houses of Congress Democratic candidate for Governor of Ten- will therefore be cast at Harrisburg on the 2nd of December next, by the twenty six in Seymour ought to set up as a prophet; as number, who, on Tuesday last, received so decisive a majority of the suffrages of the people of the Commonwealth. Selected by the friends of Grant and Colfax for that purpose, and this claim ratified by the votes of the people, these Electors meet only for the discharge of their appointed duty, after which the College is dissolved. No legal obligation binds these gentlemen to cast their ballots for the Republican nominees, Ten thousand dollars is what the Water but usage, public expectation and personal honor supply, in this regard, all the needful guarantees that the electional voice of the Commonwealth shall be heard in faithful the Presidential chair, he had better take it accordance with the wishes of the majority of the people. Only the death, or the declination. of either of the present candidates could entitle the Electors to exercise any discretion whatever in the support of others who have not been named in the canvass.

No such case as this has yet been known to our history. The Electoral vote of each State has invariably been east in accordance with the well understood wishes of the porular majorities by which the Electors were
